ENROLLING IN THE PLAN

You are eligible for the P/VP plan on the day your employment begins, provided you are a resident of Canada and you are a permanent full-time employee.

Part-time employees are also eligible for the plan.

You may opt out of health and/or dental coverage if you are already covered for these benefits under your spouse's plan.

You must be actively at work when coverage takes effect, otherwise the coverage will not be effective until you return to work. Increases in your benefits while you are covered by this plan will only become effective if you are actively at work.

Your coverage ends when your employment ends, you are no longer eligible, or the plan terminates, whichever happens first.

Your dependents' coverage ends when your coverage ends or your dependent no longer qualifies, whichever happens first.

Your eligible dependents

A dependent is someone residing in Canada and who receives coverage under your plan, such as your spouse, whether legally married or common-law.

Your unmarried children are also considered dependents, if they are under age 21, or are full-time students under age 25*.

Also, children who can't support themselves because of a physical or mental disorder are considered dependents and are covered without age limit if the disorder begins before they turn 21, or while they are students under 25*, and the disorder has been continuous since that time.

*A full-time student qualifies for prescription drug benefits until their 26th birthday if they are a child of a Quebec resident and otherwise meets the qualified child definition.

Changes in coverage

If you experience a life event (e.g., getting married, having a baby, loss of spousal coverage, etc.) please contact Cowan at 1-888-330-4010 or one-t@cowangroup.ca to notify of your change in coverage as soon as possible but within 12 months of the event.

Any changes reported after 12 months will be subject to evidence of good health acceptable to Canada Life to be covered for Health benefits.

The cost of coverage

Your status...	Premium or funding: cost sharing contribution
Actively at work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Health, Dental, Basic Life and Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D) insurance premiums are paid by the plan sponsor Optional benefits are fully member-paid (or subject to any applicable personal service contracts) There is an additional member cost share for those members with FTE under 1
On Long Term Disability (LTD)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For the first 24 months of disability, you pay the same amount as a member who is actively at work After 24 months of disability, you pay 100% of the premiums
On other types of leave	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For an Unpaid leave, you pay 100% of the premiums For Statutory leaves, such as Maternity/Parental leave, you pay the same amount as a member who is actively at work For Paid leaves, you pay the same amount as a member who is actively at work, subject to the applicable time limit for that type of leave
Survivors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Following member's death, coverage continues for 24 months at no cost to the surviving eligible dependents. Coverage ceases thereafter

What is FTE?

FTE stands for full-time equivalent. It is the basis for calculating the amount of funding we receive to help pay for your benefits.

Full-time employees have an FTE of 1 and do not share the cost of coverage (it is 100% plan sponsor-paid).

Part-time employees have an FTE of less than 1, and the calculation of cost share is based on the percentage of hours worked.

For example: If you are a part-time employee who works 75% of the hours of a full-time employee, your plan sponsor will pay 75% of the total cost of benefits and you will pay the remaining 25%. This is referred to as FTE under 1.

YOUR BENEFITS

On the pages that follow, you will find information about all of your P/VP benefits. These benefits are here for you and your dependents when you need them.

Reminder:

Your benefit plan year is September 1 through August 31, except where otherwise indicated.

General information
Deductible	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No deductible
Reimbursement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 100% of eligible claims, unless otherwise stated (subject to reasonable and customary limits)

What are reasonable and customary limits?

Reasonable and customary (R&C) limits are the usual range of fees for Health and Dental services and supplies in a specific geographic area. Some paramedical practitioners and medical service providers – such as massage therapists or physiotherapists – charge higher rates.

These higher rates drive up plan costs, which make R&C limits useful to ensure claims to our plan are not excessive. R&C limits also help reduce the likelihood of benefits fraud.

HEALTH

What is covered under Health

Your Health coverage has been designed to provide you with comprehensive benefits to support your well-being. The following pages detail your coverage for:

- Prescription drugs
- Paramedical services
- Vision care
- Medical services and supplies
- Emergency travel medical coverage

Benefits may be subject to plan maximums and frequency limits as noted. Unless specifically noted, all covered services and supplies are subject to reasonable treatment. A treatment is considered reasonable if it is accepted by the Canadian medical profession, it is proven to be effective, and it is of a form, intensity, frequency and duration essential to diagnosis or management of the disease or injury.

Prescription Drugs

Prescription formulary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 100% coverage of eligible drugs • No deductible • Drugs legally requiring a prescription, diabetic supplies, preventative vaccines • May be subject to Prior Authorization • Pay-direct drug card available • Mandatory generic substitution • $6 maximum dispensing fee • Limit of 12 dispensing fees paid by the plan per maintenance medication per year (note, this limit does not apply to drugs purchased in Quebec) • $18,000 lifetime maximum for fertility drugs (except as may be provided by law, such as in Quebec) • $500 maximum each benefit year for erectile dysfunction drugs

- Drugs and drug supplies described below are eligible when prescribed by a person entitled by law to prescribe them, dispensed by a person entitled by law to dispense them, and provided in Canada
 - Drugs which require a written prescription according to the Food and Drugs Act, Canada or provincial legislation in effect where the drug is dispensed, including contraceptive drugs and products containing a contraceptive drug
 - Injectable drugs including vitamins, insulins and allergy extracts. Syringes for self-administered injections are also covered
 - Disposable needles for use with non-disposable insulin injection devices, lancets, test strips, and sensors for flash glucose monitoring machines
 - Extemporaneous preparations or compounds if one of the ingredients is a covered drug
 - Certain other drugs that do not require a prescription by law may be covered. If you have any questions, contact Canada Life before incurring the expense
- Prescription requiring vaccines and toxoids are covered, as well as preventative vaccines and toxoids that are not covered under public immunization programs for a given member in the region of the claim at the time of the claim, subject to the covered expense limitation for interchangeable drugs. Non-life-sustaining over-the-counter vaccines are not covered
- Unless medical evidence is provided to Canada Life that indicates why a drug cannot be substituted, the covered expense may be limited to the cost of the lowest priced interchangeable drug, usually known as a generic (described under mandatory generic substitution below)
- For drugs eligible under a provincial drug plan, coverage is limited to the deductible amount and coinsurance you are required to pay under that plan
- Benefits for drugs and drug supplies provided outside Canada are payable only as provided under the out-of-country emergency care provision
- Drugs that are not subjected to Prior Authorization will be administered by Canada Life.

Your drug coverage is an important and valuable part of your benefits plan, and the P/VP plan includes certain approaches designed to keep the plan affordable and sustainable, including:

Prior Authorization

To determine whether coverage is provided for complex specialty therapies and/or drugs with safety concerns, Cubic Health Inc. (Cubic) and Canada Life maintain a limited list of drugs that require Prior Authorization and are eligible under the plan subject to a member meeting specific clinical criteria.

Prior Authorization is a process that is intended to help ensure safe and appropriate use of specialty medications under the plan. In order to be approved for a medication subject to Prior Authorization, you or your dependent have to meet the evidence-based, clinical eligibility criteria developed and maintained by Cubic's team of independent, licensed, clinical pharmacists that do not have any financial connection to a claim or to any pharmaceutical manufacturer. Cubic is responsible for assessing claims for any drug requiring Prior Authorization and determining whether or not that claim meets the eligibility requirements for payment using a transparent and consistent set of criteria based on latest medical evidence available. Each new FACET Prior Authorization claim is managed end-to-end by an independent, licensed, Clinical Pharmacist who is an expert in the drug therapy for the condition they are reviewing.

In most cases, when you are prescribed a specialty medication requiring Prior Authorization from a specialist, you will be notified at the physician's office and the office will coordinate required paperwork with the appropriate Patient Support Program for the medication that has been requested.

To review the list of medications covered under the Prior Authorization process, visit the FACET Prior Authorization Program website at www.facetprogram.ca. The applicable form can be printed for your doctor to complete or can be completed electronically. Your physician or the Patient Support Program will send the completed forms to Cubic for independent clinical review. The list of medications covered under Prior Authorization is updated monthly as new drugs come to market and new clinical evidence emerges within specific medical conditions. Medications that have not received an unconditional recommendation for listing for a particular condition or disease state from the Canadian Agency for Drugs and Technologies in Health (CADTH), Canada's national Health Technology Assessment agency, will not be eligible for coverage under the plan. In addition, the plan does not cover specialty medications that are not Health Canada indicated for a given condition or disease state.

All Prior Authorization claims have a goal of being completed within two (2) business days upon receipt of all of the required information by the FACET Clinical Team. The majority of Prior Authorization claims under the FACET Program are completed same day to ensure members and their Specialists have very responsive turnaround. If any changes need to be considered with a Prior Authorization claim, the FACET Clinical Team will communicate directly with a member's physician.

Mandatory Generic Substitution

The P/VP plan also includes mandatory generic substitution. This means Canada Life will reimburse up to the cost of the lowest-priced interchangeable drug of the same ingredient and strength, when prescribed by a physician and dispensed by an approved provider.

It's important to understand that a generic drug contains the same active ingredients, with the same dosage form, strength, safety and quality, as the original brand-name drug. In other words, generic drugs are equally as effective as brand-name drugs, but they cost the plan significantly less – in some cases, as little as 10% of the price of the brand-name product. If a brand-name drug is required for medical reasons (e.g., you are allergic to the filler in the generic version, which is not in the brand-name drug), you will need to go through an exception process with Canada Life before the P/VP plan will cover it.

Your doctor will need to complete a Request for Brand Name Drug Coverage form and provide medical evidence. If your request is approved, you will be reimbursed for the cost of the brand-name drug.

What does it mean for you?

- If you are taking a brand-name drug and you fill your prescription under the P/VP plan, you will be reimbursed based on the lower cost generic, even if your doctor writes “no substitution” on the prescription.
- Of course, you can always purchase the brand-name drug if you want to – you will just have to pay the difference out-of-pocket and/or inquire with your pharmacist if the brand-name manufacturer has any financial support program available.
- If your Request for Brand Name Drug Coverage is denied but you believe it should be approved, there is an escalation process allowing you to appeal the decision with medical evidence.

No benefits will be paid for:

- Any single purchase of drugs which would not reasonably be used within 34 days – in the case of certain maintenance drugs, a 100-day supply will be covered.
- Drugs administered during treatment in an emergency room of a hospital, or as an in-patient in a hospital.
- Drugs that are considered cosmetic, such as topical minoxidil or sunscreens, whether or not prescribed for a medical reason.
- Non-injectable allergy extracts.
- Smoking cessation products.
- Any drug that does not have a drug identification number (DIN) defined by Canada's Food and Drugs Act.

Quebec residents

If you live in Quebec, an out-of-pocket maximum is applied to in-province expenses for drugs listed in the Liste de médicaments (provincial formulary) published by the Régie de l'assurance-maladie du Québec (RAMQ).

If the sum of the non-reimbursable amounts you are required to pay for provincial formulary drug expenses incurred for you and your dependent children or for your spouse in a calendar year reaches the maximum out-of-pocket level established by law, the amount payable for provincial formulary drug expenses incurred for the same individuals for the rest of the calendar year will be adjusted as follows:

- Reimbursement will be made at 100%.
- No further out-of-pocket amounts will apply.

The out-of-pocket maximum does not apply to drug expenses incurred outside Quebec.

When you turn age 65 and reside in Quebec, you cease to be covered under this plan for basic prescription drug coverage and are covered under the basic plan provided by the RAMQ, unless you elect to be covered under this plan as set out below. A one-time election may be made, to be covered under this plan, by the end of the 60-day period immediately following the date you reach age 65 or the date you become a resident of Quebec, within the meaning of the Health Insurance Act, Quebec.

Treatment plan/predetermination

Before incurring any large dental expenses – like bridges, crowns, dentures and wisdom tooth extractions – ask your dental service provider to complete a treatment plan and submit it to Canada Life.

A predetermination is basically an estimate of the work needed and the costs involved. It's a useful tool to help you make more informed dental care decisions, because you can see in advance the approximate portion the plan will cover, and what you will have to pay.

To get a dental predetermination:

- Have your provider complete a dental claim form (either electronic or hard copy) and make sure it's clearly marked as a predetermination request;
- Include any supporting documentation (e.g., x-rays and/or models); and
- Submit the predetermination request to Canada Life for review.

Once you hear back from Canada Life, you and your provider can determine the appropriate next steps.

Your predetermination is only valid for 90 days – be sure to schedule your appointments and procedures accordingly.

Survivor benefits

If you die while your coverage is still in force, the health and dental benefits for your surviving spouse and dependents will be continued, for a period of two years or until they no longer qualify, whichever happens first.

HEALTH CARE SPENDING ACCOUNT (HCSA)

As part of your plan, you have a Health Care Spending Account (HCSA). It's like a bank account that you can use to pay for eligible health-related expenses not otherwise covered by the plan.

The HCSA supplements your benefits coverage, and provides you with some added flexibility when managing your health claims and costs. Also, since annual credits are before-tax dollars, the HCSA is a tax-effective way of paying for your health-related expenses.

The amount of HCSA credits is established prior to each benefit year by the plan sponsor.

HCSA benefit year and amount
September 1, 2021 – August 31, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> An amount of $300 is provided and must be used in this benefit year Any unused credits remaining at the end of this period will not be carried forward

What is covered under the HCSA

Covered expenses include those:

- That qualify for a medical expense tax credit under the Income Tax Act (Canada), as may be amended from time to time.
- That Canada Life deems to be eligible medical expenses under a private health services plan, as defined by the Income Tax Act (Canada), as may be amended from time to time.
- The Canada Revenue Agency website provides information on medical expenses that qualify for the medical expense tax credit under the Income Tax Act (Canada).
- Benefits will be paid for expenses that are incurred while you and your dependents are covered, up to a maximum annual payment that is equal to the credits amount you have in your HCSA. Dental expenses, other than orthodontic expenses, are considered to be incurred when treatment is completed. Orthodontic expenses are considered to be incurred on a periodic basis throughout the course of treatment. All other expenses are considered to be incurred when they are received.

No benefits will be paid for:

- Expenses that private benefit plans are not permitted to cover by law.
- Services or supplies you are entitled to without charge by law or for which a charge is made only because you have coverage under a private benefit plan.
- Any portion of the expense for services or supplies for which benefits have been paid under your health plan, another group plan or a government plan.

How your HCSA works

When you submit your eligible claims to the plan for reimbursement, you can choose to have any part of your eligible expense not otherwise covered under our plan paid from your HCSA.

Simply:

- Submit your eligible expenses incurred in the benefit year.
- Indicate that you would like to have the expense reimbursed from your HCSA balance.

Why does it matter?

Submitting these forms will enable the insurance company to pay the benefits to your beneficiaries without the delay of settling your estate. It also ensures that your estate won't be reduced by additional probate fees, and that the insurance money is provided to your beneficiaries tax-free.

If Cowan does not have signed beneficiary designation forms on file for you:

- Benefits will be paid to your estate and not directly to your desired beneficiaries; and
- Payment could be delayed under the rules and laws governing estates.

You may want to consider obtaining legal advice for more information on the implications of having your estate as your beneficiary.

Can I designate more than one beneficiary for a particular benefit?

Yes. You can also choose different beneficiaries for Life insurance and for AD&D, based on your estate planning needs.

Beneficiary designations must be completed in ink and in the appropriate section, specifying your beneficiaries' first and last names, along with the percentage allocated to each person. If you need to make changes, please strike through and initial the change – corrective liquid (e.g., white-out) is not permitted.

How can I confirm my beneficiaries on file?

You can view your designated beneficiaries by logging on to Cowan's Member Access site. Keep in mind, if you experience a life event (e.g., getting married, having a baby, etc.) – or you simply want to change your beneficiaries – you can submit new beneficiary designation forms at any time.

Revocable versus irrevocable beneficiary: What's the difference?

A revocable beneficiary can be changed by the plan member without the beneficiary's signature, while an irrevocable beneficiary requires the beneficiary to sign off on any changes.

If you want to designate an irrevocable beneficiary for Life insurance, you will have to fill out an additional Canada Life form. If you want to designate an irrevocable beneficiary for AD&D, just write "irrevocable" on the Chubb form and initial it.

Coordination of benefits

If both you and your spouse have benefits plans, you can coordinate your benefits – even if you are both members of the P/VP plan – to ensure you’re getting the most from your coverage.

Coordination of benefits (COB) simply means submitting a claim to your plan first, and then to your spouse’s plan. If your spouse is the claimant, then he/she must first submit the claim to his/her plan and then to yours. If the claim is for a dependent child and both parents have benefits coverage, then the claim can be submitted:

1. To the plan of the parent with the earlier birthdate (month/day) in the calendar year; then
2. To the other parent’s plan. (If both parents have the same birthdate, then priority is based on the alphabetical order of the parents’ first names.)

It’s important to remember, however, that claims are subject to R&C limits. Coordinating benefits will increase your overall reimbursement, but due to R&C limits, your claim may not be reimbursed at 100%.

How coordination of benefits (COB) works

Jennifer is covered under the P/VP benefits plan. She gets a pair of orthotics. The P/VP benefits plan covers up to a maximum for orthotics, but Jennifer’s pair exceeds that limit, so the complete cost is not covered.

Mark (Jennifer’s husband) has orthotics coverage under his employer’s benefits plan. Neither Jennifer nor Mark have made any prior orthotics claims this year. To maximize their coverage, Jennifer could:

1. Submit the claim to her benefits plan with Canada Life for reimbursement, subject to R&C, up to the plan maximum; and then

2. Submit the claim to Mark’s plan for additional reimbursement. If Mark’s plan is also with Canada Life, the claim would be subject to the same R&C limit, so Jennifer may not be eligible for additional reimbursement. If Mark’s plan is with another insurance carrier the R&C limit may be different.

Additional claiming details

For Drug claims, your plan sponsor will provide you with a prescription drug identification card. Present your card to the pharmacist with your prescription.

Before your prescription is filled, an Assure Claims check will be done. Assure Claims is a series of seven checks that are electronically done on your drug claim history for increased safety and compliance monitoring. This has been designed to improve the health and quality of life for you and your dependents.

Checks done include

- Drug interaction.
- Therapeutic duplication.
- Duration of therapy.

These checks allow the pharmacist to react prior to the drug being dispensed. Depending on the outcome of the checks, the pharmacist may refuse to dispense the prescribed drug.

For Out of Country claims, (including those for GMA expenses) they should be submitted to Canada Life as soon as possible after the expense is incurred. It is very important that you send your claims to the Canada Life Out-of-Country Claims Department immediately as your provincial or territorial medical plan has very strict time limitations.

Access GroupNet for Plan Members to obtain a personalized claim form (form M5432, Statement of Claim Out-of-Country Expenses form). You must also obtain the Government Assignment form, and residents of British Columbia, Quebec and Newfoundland & Labrador must also obtain the Special Government Claim form.

The Canada Life Out-of-Country Claims Department will forward the appropriate government forms to your attention when required.

You should complete all applicable forms, making sure all required information is included. Attach all original receipts and forward the claim to the Canada Life Out-of-Country Claims Department. Be sure to keep a copy for your own records. The plan will pay all eligible claims including your provincial or territorial medical plan portion. Your Provincial or Territorial Medical Plan will then reimburse the plan for the government's share of the expenses.

Out-of-country claims must be submitted within a certain time period that varies by province or territory. For the claims submission period applicable in your province or territory or for any other questions or for assistance in completing any of the forms, please contact Canada Life.

Where Quebec law applies, any death benefits will be paid within 30 days of Canada Life receiving the required proof of your claim. All other benefits will be paid within 60 days of Canada Life receiving proof of your claim.

Liability for Benefits

The Trustees of ONE-T have entered into an agreement with The Canada Life Assurance Company whereby the Health (other than GMA) and Dental benefits outlined in this booklet are uninsured and The Trustees of ONE-T has liability for them. Also, the Basic Life waiver of premium coverage is self-insured with ONE-T/FENSÉO for any disabilities from September 1, 2020. Any Basic Life waiver of premium attributable to disabilities prior to this date is insured with Canada Life.

This means that the Health (other than GMA), Dental and Basic Life waiver of premium benefits are:

- An unsecured financial obligation and are payable from The Trustees of ONE-T's net income, retained earnings or other financial resources; and

- Not underwritten by a licensed insurer or regulated insurer. All claims will, however, be processed by Canada Life.

If British Columbia law applies, the giving of this notice exempts The Trustees of ONE-T from the requirements under the Financial Institutions Act (British Columbia).

If Quebec law applies, any communication that you receive from Canada Life with respect to any uninsured benefit will indicate that it is not under the supervision and control of the Autorité des marchés financiers.

For any insured benefits, the role of your plan sponsor is limited to providing you with information and not advice.

Legal Action

Insured benefits: Every action or proceeding against an insurer for the recovery of insurance money payable under the contract is absolutely barred unless commenced within the time set out in the Insurance Act (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Alberta and British Columbia), The Insurance Act (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Manitoba), the Limitations Act, 2002 (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Ontario), or other applicable legislation.

For those actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Quebec, the prescriptive period is set out in the Quebec Civil Code.

Non-insured benefits: No legal action to recover non-insured benefits under this plan can be introduced for 60 days after notice of claim is submitted, or more than two years after a benefit has been denied.

Appeals to Canada Life

Insured benefits: You have the right to appeal a denial by Canada Life of all or part of the insurance or benefits described in the contract as long as you do so within one year of the initial denial of the insurance or a benefit. An appeal must be in writing and must include your reasons for believing the denial to be incorrect.

Non-insured benefits: You have the right to appeal a denial by Canada Life of all or part of the coverage or benefits described in this plan as long as you do so within two years after the denial. An appeal must be in writing and must include your reasons for believing the denial to be incorrect.

If you believe you have a reason to appeal, first contact Canada Life. If the issue isn't resolved, your complaint will be escalated for further review. When you need to submit your appeal in writing, it will be addressed to the Ombudsman, whose mailing address can be found on the last page of this booklet.

Appeals to ONE-T

If, after moving through the appeals process(es) with our providers, you are not fully satisfied, you can submit an appeal to ONE-T.

For example,

- For an appeal related to the reimbursement of a claim, you would already have submitted your initial request for reconsideration through Canada Life's appeal process;
- For Drug Prior Authorization appeals, you would already have directed your initial request for reconsideration to Cubic Health Inc.;
- For appeals related to eligibility, you would already have directed your request for reconsideration to Cowan.

Only after you have completed the steps above can you submit an appeal to ONE-T. Full details of this policy and the claims appeal form can be found on the ONE-T website.

Benefit Limitation for Overpayment

Insured benefits: If benefits are paid that were not payable under the policy, you are responsible for repayment within six months after Canada Life sends you a notice of the overpayment, or within a longer period if agreed to in writing by Canada Life. If you fail to fulfil this responsibility, no further benefits are payable under the policy until the overpayment is recovered. This does not limit Canada Life's right to use other legal means to recover the overpayment.

Non-insured benefits: If benefits are overpaid you are responsible for repayment within six months, or within a longer period if agreed to by your plan sponsor. If you fail to fulfill this responsibility, further benefits will be withheld until the overpayment is recovered. This does not limit your plan sponsor's right to use other legal means to recover the overpayment.

Both parties may exchange personal information with your health care providers, your plan administrator, any insurance or reinsurance companies, administrators of government benefits or other benefit programs, other organizations, or service providers working with us or the above when relevant and necessary to administer the plan.

GLOSSARY

Benefit plan year

The benefit plan year begins on September 1st of each year and ends on August 31st of the following year.

Coordination of benefits (COB)

Coordination of benefits (COB) means submitting a claim to your plan first, and then to your spouse's plan to cover any amount not covered in full by the P/VP plan.

Deductible

A deductible is a specific amount of money you or your dependent have to pay before the insurance company will reimburse you.

Dental fee guide

This is the schedule of fees outlining the typical cost of dental services provided by general practitioners, as published by the dental association in your province of residence.

Dependent

An eligible dependent is someone who resides in Canada and is your spouse, whether married legal or common-law.

Your unmarried children are also considered dependents, if they are under age 21, or under age 26 if they are full-time students. Eligible children must reside in Canada or ordinarily reside in Canada but are temporarily studying outside of Canada.

Also, children who are can't support themselves because of a physical or mental disorder are considered dependents and are covered without age limit if the disorder begins before they turn 21, or while they are students under 26, and the disorder has been continuous since that time.

Evidence of insurability

Proof of good health satisfactory to the insurer.

FTE

FTE stands for full-time equivalent. It is the basis for calculating the amount of funding we receive to help pay for your benefits. Full-time employees have an FTE of 1 and do not share the cost of coverage.

Part-time employees have an FTE of less than 1, and the calculation of cost share is based on the percentage of hours worked.

Health Care Spending Account (HCSA)

A Health Care Spending Account (HCSA) is an account through which you may be reimbursed for health and dental expenses up to a predetermined set credit annual credit amount each year. These credits may be used to supplement your benefits coverage.

Hospital

A hospital is an institution that:

- Is legally termed a hospital.
- Is open at all times.
- Offers in-patient accommodation.
- Has a staff of one or more physicians available at all times.
- Continuously provides 24-hour nursing by registered nurses.

Nursing care

The plan covers home nursing care provided in Canada. Nursing care is care that:

- Requires the skills and training of a registered nurse/registered practical nurse/licenced practical nurse.
- Is provided by a professional nurse who is not a member of the patient's family.
- Coverage is limited to the number of hours and level of skill needed to provide each essential nursing service. Applicable licensing restrictions will be recognized in determining the level of skill needed.

Nursing home

A nursing home is an institution or part of an institution that:

- Offers in-patient accommodation.
- Has a staff of one or more physicians available at all times.
- Continuously provides 24-hour medical care by or under the supervision of professional nurses.

Facilities established primarily as residences for senior citizens or which provide personal rather than medical care are not included.

Out-of-pocket maximum

The portion of eligible expenses you pay is considered out-of-pocket expenses. Once you reach the out-of-pocket maximum, reimbursement goes to 100% for eligible expenses, until you reach the coverage limits. An out-of-pocket maximum is applied to in-province expenses for drugs listed in the Liste de médicaments published by the Régie de l'assurance-maladie du Québec if you live in Quebec (provincial formulary drug expenses). The out-of-pocket maximum does not apply to drug expenses incurred outside Quebec.

Plan sponsor

The plan sponsor means Trustees of ONE-T/FENSEO.

Employer

Employer means a participating employer that is a part to ONE-T/FENSEO, the Ontario Non-union Education Trust, and has agreed to make contributions to the plan sponsor for member coverage under this plan.

Prior Authorization

Prior Authorization is a process that is intended to help ensure you or your dependent have met the eligibility criteria developed and maintained by Cubic Health Inc. for the drug you are trying to get coverage for.

Reasonable and customary (R&C)

Reasonable and customary (R&C) limits are the normal range of fees for services and supplies in a given geographical area. All services and supplies covered under the P/VP plan must represent reasonable treatment – meaning they must be accepted by the Canadian medical profession, proven to be effective, and of a form, intensity, frequency and duration that is essential to diagnose or manage a disease or injury. Some paramedical practitioners and medical service providers – such as massage therapists or physiotherapists – charge higher rates, which drive higher plan costs. R&C limits are important to ensure claims to our plan are not excessive and will also help reduce the likelihood of benefits fraud.

Spouse

Your spouse is either a person to whom you are legally married, or your common-law partner (of either sex) who is living with you and has been living with you in a conjugal relationship for a period of at least 12 months, or your common-law partner with no minimum cohabitation period if you are both the parents of a natural or adopted child.

Waiver of premium

A benefit applied for, which if approved, means Canada Life (and/ or Chubb) will waive the premium you pay for Life Insurance or AD&D Insurance for you, or for your dependents, while you are on an approved long term disability. The extent of this benefit may be dependent upon the date at which you become disabled. To ensure your application will be considered, you must apply for this benefit, within the specified time frames. Refer to the relevant section within Life Insurance and AD&D Insurance for additional details.
